

ACS CODC1 Training & Assessment (including COMCAT1 & COMCAT3, ICPN1, TPCP1 if required)

A changeover core assessment for an engineer who already holds domestic core and wish to extend their scope of work to include carrying out installation and maintenance work on pipework, appliances and equipment on commercial catering natural gas installations.

Duration:	3-5 Day's (duration subject to what qualifications the engineer already holds)
Course Space:	8 Trainees
Method of Delivery:	Trainer Led
Who is this for?	Engineers who hold valid CCN1 and are renewing their CODC1 or have adequate on-site experience to extend their scope into commercial catering

Course Objectives:

- Ventilation & combustion as related to commercial catering appliances
- Installation of pipework & fittings for commercial catering appliances

Technical Information

Date Produced: April 2026

Pre-requisite Qualifications: Those who hold valid CCN1 and are renewing their CODC1 or have adequate on-site experience to extend their scope into commercial catering

Assessment Type: Multi Choice question papers and practical assessment's