

ACS COMCAT1 & COMCAT3 Training & Assessment (COCATA1)

This course is for experienced engineers who intend to extend their scope of work to include the installation and maintenance of commercial catering appliances such as boiler burners, open/solid top ranges, hot plates, bain maries, deep fat and pressure fryers, griddles and grills.

Duration:	2 Day's
Course Space:	8 Trainees
Method of Delivery:	Trainer Led
Who is this for?	Engineers who hold valid CCN + Appliances + CODC1/CCLP1 + Appliances + CODC1

Course Objectives:

- Appliance installation
- Appliance servicing
- Adjust, replace, clean & lubricate components
- Gas tightness testing
- Flame supervision devices
- Work carried out to manufacturer's instructions
- Identification of defects on safety components
- Unsafe situations
- Multi-functional controls

Technical Information

Date Produced:	April 2026
Pre-requisite Qualifications:	Those who hold valid CCN + Appliances + CODC1/CCLP1 + Appliances + CODC1
Assessment Type:	Multi Choice question papers and practical assessment's