

Distribution Boot Camp

Network Construction Operations (Gas) Main Layer

This course will provide the learners with the knowledge and understanding of how to safely install and maintain mains pipework on the UK gas network. It will provide the necessary training and assessment to achieve a City & Guilds level 2 certificate in Network Construction Operations (Gas) Main Layer and EUSR registration.

Duration: 11 Days

Course Space: 8 Learners

Method of delivery: Trainer led

Who is this for? All operatives that are required to be a potential team leader installing, maintaining, or replacing gas main installations on the UK network.

Course Subjects Covered:

- | | |
|---|---|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Safe work practices required when working on the network and highway.• Demonstrate the safe working practices and procedures for installing and replacing gas mains. | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Identifying common hazards.• Protecting our environment.• Safely working in excavations.• How to join, install and test pipework.• Positive relationships in the workplace. |
|---|---|

These courses are fully funded for independent/self-employed learners. Employers using Bootcamps to upskill their workforce will be required to pay a contribution. (10% for SME and 30% for larger employers)

Technical Information

Learners will be able to safely install, maintain, test and decommission mains pipework.

Assessment Type: City and Guilds certification within centre assessments, onsite assessment and portfolio build.

Qualification required: NEBOSH National General Certificate & be over 19 • Live within Gateshead, Sunderland, South Tyneside, Newcastle, North Tyneside, Northumberland, or County Durham. • Have the right to work in the UK.