

Deep Excavation (Refresher / In-House)

---

A one-day programme for persons involved in excavation works, which are carried out in unstable ground to the depth of 2.5 metres, for the purpose of laying, repairing, and modifying utilities.

Duration:	1 day
Course Space:	Maximum 8 Persons
Method of Delivery:	Trainer led with group discussions.
Target Population:	All personnel involved in excavations.

Aims: To refresh and further develop the skills required to monitor and inspect deep excavations, ensuring that the safe systems used conform to industry standard and meet company procedures.

Course Objectives:

- The learners will demonstrate their knowledge and understanding in:
- Current legislation and company procedures.
- Causes of trench collapse.
- Methods of trench support.
- Designing a safe system of work and applying the principles of SCO Permitry, inspection of existing and installation of a variety of trench support.

Frequency: As required

Technical Information

Date Produced:	December 2021
Assessment Type:	Practical and written assessments.
Delivery Requirements:	All individuals must possess the appropriate skills to perform their role. This included suitable reading and writing abilities.
Quality Assurance:	Lomax has internal quality assurance policies and procedures and EUSR quality assurance policies and procedures. Course evaluations are closely monitored and reviewed to ensure delivery has been well received and issues addressed.