

SCO Renewal Training Programme – Module 1 (Core)

These courses provide the necessary training to achieve the above qualification to show on the Energy & Utility Skills register

Duration:	1/3 Day (Depending on Learner Needs)
Course Space:	Maximum 8 Trainees
Method of Delivery:	Trainer led with group discussions with theory sessions.

Who is this for?	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• All gas industry personnel involved in operational works on the Gas Networks and certain types of Meter Installations including, but not strictly limited to, individuals who are or will become Names Authorising Engineers or Named Competent Persons• Individuals must hold SCO 1 & 2 plus GL/6 update or SCO core, still in date prior to training
------------------	---

Course Objectives:

- | | |
|--|---|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Identify the SCO hierarchy of standards, documents and procedures• State the types of safe systems within the risk hierarchy and risk-based approach to SCO• Identify the roles and responsibilities of specific individuals within SCO and the importance of communication• Identify how to monitor risk and manage change | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• State how to manage deviations/emergencies• Identify the requirements of records management, performance review and monitoring, audit and review• Identify SCO competency requirements• Identify SCO EUSR registration requirements. |
|--|---|

Technical Information

Date Produced:	December 2021
Assessment Type:	Multiple choice theory papers.
Delivery Requirements:	All individuals must possess the appropriate skills to perform their role. This included suitable reading and writing abilities.
Quality Assurance:	Lomax has internal quality assurance policies and procedures and EUSR quality assurance policies and procedures. Course evaluations are closely monitored and reviewed to ensure delivery has been well received and issues addressed.

SCO Renewal Training Programme – Module 2 (Permit to Work)

These courses provide the necessary training to achieve the above qualification to show on the Energy & Utility Skills register

Duration:	1/3 Day (Depending on Learner Needs)
Course Space:	Maximum 8 Trainees
Method of Delivery:	Trainer led with group discussions with theory sessions.

Who is this for?	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• All gas industry personnel involved in operational works on the Gas Networks and certain types of Meter Installations including, but not strictly limited to, individuals who are or will become Names Authorising Engineers or Named Competent Persons• Individuals must hold SCO 1 & 2 plus GL/6 update or SCO core and PtW, still in date prior to training
------------------	---

Course Objectives:

- | | |
|--|--|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none">• State the purpose of a Permit to Work and when this type of control should be used• Recognise the importance of risk assessment to a PtW• Identify the key information and process requirements needed for a PtW | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• State the requirements for managing change in relation to a PtW• Identify specific PtW requirements for validity and extension, atmosphere testing, execution, handovers and completion |
|--|--|

Technical Information

Date Produced:	December 2021
Assessment Type:	Multiple choice theory papers.
Delivery Requirements:	All individuals must possess the appropriate skills to perform their role. This included suitable reading and writing abilities.
Quality Assurance:	Lomax has internal quality assurance policies and procedures and EUSR quality assurance policies and procedures. Course evaluations are closely monitored and reviewed to ensure delivery has been well received and issues addressed.

SCO Renewal Training Programme – Module 3 (Non-Routine Operation)

These courses provide the necessary training to achieve the above qualification to show on the Energy & Utility Skills register

Duration: 1/3 Day (Depending on Learner Needs)
Course Space: Maximum 8 Trainees
Method of Delivery: Trainer led with group discussions with theory sessions.

Who is this for?

- All gas industry personnel involved in operational works on the Gas Networks and certain types of Meter Installations including, but not strictly limited to, individuals who are or will become Names Authorising Engineers or Named Competent Persons
- Individuals must hold SCO 1 & 2, 4 plus GL/6 update or SCO core, PtW and NRO, still in date prior to training

Course Objectives:

- State the purpose of Non-Routine Operation and identify when this type of control may be used
- State the relevant process, roles and responsibilities of those involved with an NRO
- Identify the key information requirements of an NRO
- Recognise the importance of risk assessment to an NRO
- Identify specific NRO requirements for AE authorisation, conflict checking, clearance to proceed, handovers, briefings, preliminaries, notifications, execution or works, deviations, permits to work and completion

Technical Information

Date Produced: December 2021

Assessment Type: Multiple choice theory papers.

Delivery Requirements: All individuals must possess the appropriate skills to perform their role. This included suitable reading and writing abilities.

Quality Assurance: Lomax has internal quality assurance policies and procedures and EUSR quality assurance policies and procedures. Course evaluations are closely monitored and reviewed to ensure delivery has been well received and issues

SCO Renewal Training Programme – Module 4 (Routine Operation)

These courses provide the necessary training to achieve the above qualification to show on the Energy & Utility Skills register

Duration:	1/3 Day (Depending on Learner Needs)
Course Space:	Maximum 8 Trainees
Method of Delivery:	Trainer led with group discussions with theory sessions

Who is this for?	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• All gas industry personnel involved in operational works on the Gas Networks and certain types of Meter Installations including, but not strictly limited to, individuals who are or will become Names Authorising Engineers or Named Competent Persons• Individuals must hold SCO 1 & 2, 5 plus GL/6 update or SCO core, PtW and RO, still in date prior to training
------------------	--

Course Objectives:

- | | |
|--|---|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none">• State the purpose of a Routine Operation and when this type of control should be used• State the process, roles and responsibilities of those involved with an RO• Identify the key information requirements of an RO• Recognise the importance of risk assessment of an RO | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Identify specific RO requirements for AE authorisation, conflict checking, clearance to proceed, handovers, briefing, preliminaries, execution or works, deviations, permits to work and completion |
|--|---|

Technical Information

Date Produced:	December 2021
Assessment Type:	Multiple choice theory papers.
Delivery Requirements:	All individuals must possess the appropriate skills to perform their role. This included suitable reading and writing abilities.
Quality Assurance:	Lomax has internal quality assurance policies and procedures and EUSR quality assurance policies and procedures. Course evaluations are closely monitored and reviewed to ensure delivery has been well received and issues addressed.

SCO Renewal Training Programme – Module 5 (Form of Authority)

These courses provide the necessary training to achieve the above qualification to show on the Energy & Utility Skills register

Duration:	1/3 Day (Depending on Learner Needs)
Course Space:	Maximum 8 Trainees
Method of Delivery:	Trainer led with group discussions with theory sessions

Who is this for?	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• All gas industry personnel involved in operational works on the Gas Networks and certain types of Meter Installations including, but not strictly limited to, individuals who are or will become Names Authorising Engineers or Named Competent Persons• Individuals must hold SCO 1 & 2, plus GL/6 update or SCO core and FoA, still in date prior to training
------------------	--

Course Objectives:

- | | |
|---|--|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none">• State the purpose of a Form of Authority and identify when one may be used• Identify and analyse the key information needed for an FoA• Recognise the importance of risk assessment and the management change to an FoA | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Identify specific FoA requirements for validity and extension, atmosphere testing, execution, handovers and completion |
|---|--|

Technical Information

Date Produced:	December 2021
Assessment Type:	Multiple choice theory papers.
Delivery Requirements:	All individuals must possess the appropriate skills to perform their role. This included suitable reading and writing abilities.
Quality Assurance:	Lomax has internal quality assurance policies and procedures and EUSR quality assurance policies and procedures. Course evaluations are closely monitored and reviewed to ensure delivery has been well received and issues addressed.