

ACS CMET1 Training & Assessment

This course provides gas operatives with training on commercial gas meters and prepares them for assessment. The certificate is renewable every 5 years. Operatives will need to obtain MET4, ICPN and TPCP1 to get ACS CMET2.

Duration: 2 Days (1 day training & 1 day assessments)

Course Space: 10 Trainees

Method of delivery: Trainer led

Who is this for? Emergency service provider & Meter installer operatives.

Course Subjects Covered:

- Theory and practical training on commercial diaphragm & RPD meters with bypass.
- Installation, commissioning, exchange, and removal of domestic gas meters.
- Practical skills and knowledge related to gas safety legislation meter installation, pressure regulation, tightness testing, and commissioning

Technical Information

To provide experienced gas operatives with training to prepare them to undertake the ACS assessment.

Assessment Type: Multichoice question paper & Practical assessment

Qualification required: Knowledge of all gas and heating systems.