

CODNCO1 Training and Assessment

This course is for experienced operatives who hold the Core Domestic Gas Safety (CCN1) qualification who wish to undertake commercial gas work. Completion of this qualification will enable individuals who show competency to be Gas Safe registered.

Duration: 2 days for CODNCO only

Course Space: 8 Learners

Method of Delivery: Trainer Led

Who is this for? Domestic gas operatives who wish to undertake commercial gas work.
Commercial gas operatives who wish to renew their qualifications.

Course Overview:

- Characteristics of combustion and use of analysis equipment.
- Commercial ventilation.
- Operation and position of emergency isolation controls and valves in commercial premises.
- Checking and setting commercial appliances/equipment burner pressures.
- The operation and checking of commercial appliance devices and controls.
- Commercial appliance/equipment flueing requirements.
- Unsafe situations.
- Re establish gas supplies and relighting appliances.

Technical Information

Date Produced: September 2019

Assessment Type: Theory and practical assessments